

Prophetic Vision: 'Now is the Time of Your Healing'

Read Time: 3 Minutes 41 Seconds

I was remembering a time when my husband and I were praying over friends who had been in a situation for many years that had caused deep trauma to their souls. As we were praying for them, I became aware of an angel standing over them holding a large water pitcher. This angel then began to pour a heavenly liquid over their heads.

I was taken by surprise because I had encountered this very angel some years earlier. It had appeared while I was with a dear friend who had experienced a traumatic loss in her life. It appeared with the same pitcher and was pouring a liquid substance over her as well.

Angels of Healing

There are angels of healing and restoration. The liquid that they pour out is a mixture of healing water along with the oil of joy. The healing water is drawn from heavenly healing pools and it is mixed with the oil of joy. It not only heals but it restores joy.

These angels come to wash away trauma as well as restore (heal) the areas where trauma has wounded souls. Angels of healing are even now being sent in response to the cries of the children of God.

"I will exalt You, LORD, for You rescued me. You refused to let my enemies triumph over me. O Lord my God, I cried to You for help, and You restored my health. You brought me up from the grave, O Lord. You kept me from falling into the pit of death," (Ps. 30:1-3).

Cycles of Trauma

When this angel was in our midst, I saw writing appear before my eyes that said, "Trauma produces fear, fear produces triggers, triggers produce reactions and reactions produce more trauma."

It becomes a vicious cycle that wounds and re-wounds the soul, causing people to live in a continual state of trauma and fear, full of triggers and reactions.

God is with you to break cycles of trauma. He will send angels of healing and restoration that will pour this heavenly liquid over your wounded soul.

These angels are dipping jars in the healing pools of heaven and pouring in the oil that brings joy. You can finish 2022 with old doors shut and new doors open. Doors of trauma will receive closure and doors of restoration will be opened. November and December will be months of healing and restoration for many of God's children.

Invite the Angels to Come

I believe that the Father is asking you to invite these angels of healing to come to you and pour out this healing substance over your body and soul. You do not have to see the angels; your faith is all that is needed. You will begin to experience healing from past traumas and all the fear and reactions that have been attached to them.

This is a divine reset from your loving Father who does not want you to suffer any longer. He will set you free from living with trauma and cycles that occur when those traumas mark the soul. Let His healing waters saturate your soul and the oil of joy awaken your spirit.

"He heals the brokenhearted and bandages their wounds," (Ps. 147:3).

Joy Comes After Mourning

You will begin to experience joy once again. There are seasons of mourning but God wants you to know that as the darkness of trauma is washed away, light will come like a new day to renew you with joy.

"You have turned my mourning into joyful dancing. You have taken away my clothes of mourning and clothed me with joy, that I might sing praises to You and not be silent. O Lord my God, I will give You thanks forever!" (Ps. 30:11-12).

Joy will come as the wounds are healed. It will surely surely as the morning.

"...Weeping may last through the night, but joy comes with the morning." (Psalm 30:5)

Healing angels are awaiting your invitation to come and pour healing over your body and soul. Their jars are filled. God will restore your soul and bring the light of morning after a long night season of pain. The oil of joy will be poured over you and you will see the light of day.

"And provide for those who grieve in Zion—to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of joy instead of mourning and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the LORD for the display of His splendor," (Isaiah 61:3).

Now is the time for your healing.
