The discussion began with the ongoing tensions in the Middle East, particularly the attacks on Israel by Hamas and Iran. Pierce emphasized the gravity of these events, stating, "this attack by Hamas on Oct. 7, has now dragged on six months... Israel, in my opinion, has to defend itself, and yet the world seems to be turning against Israel." He points to the importance of Israel in God's plan, referring to Israel as "the central covenant choice for Him to display His will in the earth realm amongst the nations."

God's Love for Israel

Pierce highlighted God's special relationship with Israel, referencing the Hebrew Scriptures to emphasize God's love and protection for His chosen nation. In Isaiah 49:16 (MEV), it is written, "See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands; your walls are continually before Me." This verse illustrates and confirms God's unwavering commitment to Israel, always watching over and protecting them putting to rest the argument that Christians have somehow replaced Israel as opposed to being grafted into the tree of salvation with them.

The very birth of the modern state of Israel is a fulfillment of prophecy according to Pierce, saying, "Could a nation be born in a day? There's no other people on Earth that was dispersed in the same way that Israel has been for almost 2,000 years and then reemerged." He recounts the miraculous survival of Israel against numerous attacks throughout its history, highlighting God's protective hand over the nation.

Warnings to America

The warning to America was stark and urgent. Pierce stated, "God said America, I'm going to give you two years to make choices to realign with my Covenant plan." He shares concern over America's shifting stance towards Israel, noting a growing anti-Israel sentiment since the Oct. 7, attacks. Pierce urged Americans to recognize the importance of their choices, reinforcing the old adage that "elections have consequences."

Scripture warns about the consequences of cursing Israel. In Genesis 12:3, God says to Abraham, "I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse." This verse serves as a powerful reminder of God's promise to protect and bless those who support Israel and the dire consequences for those who oppose or harm them.

Global Geopolitics and God's Plan

Pierce also delves into the intricate relationships between Iran, China and Russia, emphasizing their impact on global geopolitics. He points out China's emerging role in the world and its relationship with Iran, stating, "I think Iran would prefer China to become that world power, [and] God showed me that is possible by 2026." He highlighted the growing dependency between Russia and Iran for weaponry, noting the changing dynamics in the Middle East.

Pierce then mentions signs from God, such as the recent eclipse on Apr. 8, as messages urging nations to align with His plan. He stated, "I actually believe that was a sign when the moon and the sun aligned and that path formed across America that the Lord said 'I'm giving America a new path if they'll choose in the next two years.'"

The prophetic warning from Chuck Pierce serves as a wake-up call for America and the global community. It underscores the significance of aligning with God's covenant plan and supporting Israel, God's chosen nation. As believers, we must heed these warnings, pray fervently and align our actions with God's Word.

Let us remember the words of Isaiah 62:1, "For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not remain quiet." As Christians, let us stand with Israel, pray for our nation's alignment with God's will, and trust in His promises of protection and blessing.
