

Prophetic Warning: Deliverance Will Be Needed Following DNC

Troy Black is delivering a stark prophetic warning as the DNC prepares to wrap up this evening.

I heard the Lord say, 'People are going to need deliverance after this one,'" Black says in his latest livestream. "It's talking about the convention. And I prayed about this and said, 'Lord I don't want to share this, this is scary, I don't know, but He said, 'People are going to need deliverance after this one.'"

Black further warned about the practices that have happened so far during this convention.

"This is Satanic and there are Christians who will need deliverance just for being there this time," says Black. "He could be speaking about people who are Christian in name only, He could also be speaking about real Christians who are not listening to the Holy Spirit and who are being pressured by what their culture is telling them or what the media's telling them."

Black further noted the importance of the issue of abortion, and how unborn children are still people created in the image of God. This word could then apply to the free abortions by Planned Parenthood that were offered near the DNC. The celebration of reproductive “rights” has been heavily featured throughout the convention as well with a giant, inflatable IUD and speeches focused on this topic, including from Hillary Clinton.
