

Prophetic Word: Holy Spirit Says, 'The Righteous Are Going to Soar and Rise'

In a series of encounters recently, the Lord has been speaking to me about His eagles—those believers and warriors who have taken the time to rest deeply in the Lord, heal, listen and prepare themselves for the future.

These eagles are trained to soar! Like great birds perched on the Master Falconer's arm, they are awaiting His signal and ready to be released.

I believe there will be a time very soon when these eagles will be corporately released. They will know by the Spirit what they are to do, both individually and in collaboration with each other. Their visionary leadership and heightened perspective in stormy times will be a great asset to the body of Christ!

The Eagle Bride

In recurring visions, I saw the Lord's bride in the form of a mature eagle, perfectly perched on His right arm. She was at rest, and she faced inward, not outward. She was looking intently into her Master's eyes, awaiting His commands.

Like a skilled master falconer, Jesus had found and trained this eagle at just the right time.

At her feet, I saw a dark rope—a "cord of compassion" that the Lord had used to rescue her, which became a "tether" to her when she flew. This cord did not restrict the eagle's freedom in any way, but symbolized the spiritual connection between His heart and hers: His in rescue; hers in flight.

Like every one of the Lord's eagles, I knew that she had her own testimony of redemption or rehabilitation. Her feathers were beautiful, soft and perfect; she had no wounds or flaws.

I knew from a previous vision that the eagle's hiddenness and subsequent emergence to maturity had gone almost unnoticed by the world. She was a skilled, obedient hunter who responded immediately to the Lord's voice.

Looking closely, I saw that the Lord had placed blinders over her eyes (like a falconer's hood) to calm and protect this eagle from the noise of change and the sudden sights of chaos happening around the world. He meant to keep the eagle from flying off too quickly to her demise.

While these blinders shielded the eagle from the warfare happening all around her, they did not prevent her from gazing at Him! The eagle's focus was completely on the Lord. It was her ability to seek Him first, above all, that kept her from being destroyed by mounting anxieties and battles taking place in the world around her (see Matt. 6:25-34.)

This eagle was abiding in the powerful place of stillness that Isaiah describes, where rest becomes salvation and trust becomes strength (see Isa. 40:31).

As I experienced these encounters, I felt so strongly that they contained deep wisdom from the Lord. I saw that for some believers at this time, REST could mean the difference between life and death.

God is calling His eagle bride to fix her gaze steadily on Him for two reasons: first, so that she is absolutely certain of who He is and her strengths in Him; second, to allow the fog of deceptive warfare to pass so that better strategic perspective can be gained.

While Evil Men Run and Hide, the Righteous Are Going to Soar and Rise!

In another prayer time, the Holy Spirit brought me into a new vision. He took me to the wilderness and showed me what appeared to be caves.

I saw that those who were plotting greedily for their own gain thought they were safe hiding inside the tunnels of these rocky caves. They were digging themselves deeper and deeper into darkness.

The Holy Spirit said, "While evil men run and hide, the righteous are going to soar and rise!"

I saw that those who were planning evil on the earth were encountering the fear of the Lord in such a measure, they were now running deeper and deeper into these caves created for their secret schemes. They thought they were protected, but as the judgments of the Lord increased, they cried out for the rocks to fall and hide them.

"I watched as He opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake. The sun turned black like sackcloth made of goat hair, the whole moon turned blood red and the stars in the sky fell to earth, as figs drop from a fig tree when shaken by a strong wind. The heavens receded like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

"Then the kings of the earth, the princes, the generals, the rich, the mighty and everyone else, both slave and free, hid in caves and among the rocks of the mountains. They called to the mountains and the rocks, 'Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb! For the great day of Their wrath has come, and who can withstand it?'" (Rev. 6:12-17)

I heard the Spirit say that earthquakes around the world are meant to be a sign that God is able to break open even the deepest recesses of the earth, exposing to all what has been maliciously hidden.

"I will give you the treasures of darkness and hidden riches of secret places..." (Isa. 45:3)

I saw hoarded "treasures" of the wicked inside these caves, stored up for one purpose yet designated for another! This was so that the righteous could know and rejoice in the Lord, their just and merciful King!

I heard the Lord say: "I am orchestrating a transfer of wealth from the wicked, even as I transform the righteous!"
