

‘Riots to Revival’ Movement Brings Baptism, Worship to Kenosha Streets

Back in June, the movement started by Dr. Charles and Pastor Lindsey Karuku with the International Outreach Church in Burnsville, Minnesota, took to the streets of Minneapolis to proclaim Jesus’ name. Christians and nonbelievers came together at the location of George Floyd’s memorial site where the Holy Spirit healed bodies and hearts as salvations, baptisms and worship filled the streets.

Now Dr. Karuku is taking the “Riots to Revival” movement to the streets of Kenosha, Wisconsin to help heal hearts and minds with the power of the gospel message.

In several Facebook posts on Friday, Karuku posted photos of people being baptized, praying and worshipping, along with the words “Let the healing begin!”

In one post, Karuku wrote: “MIRACLES IN KENOSHA: A massive move of God. Salvation, healing, racial reconciliation, and awesome baptisms on the streets. Riot to Revival. Glory to God!!! Let the healing begin!

Kenosha. Riot to Revival. Let the healing begin! TRAVEL WITH US. We need missionaries in America. Text the word UNITY to 612-712-7748 for more details. Let’s contend for revival in America. Lindsey K Karuku
