

Sid Roth: Prophecies Reveal God Is Using Passover, COVID-19 to Do Something 'Supernatural' on Earth

As the world continues to battle the coronavirus, many Christians are wondering what God could be saying during these troubling times.

Television personality, evangelist and host of It's Supernatural Sid Roth told CBN News he believes it is no coincidence the pandemic is occurring now and says God is preparing the church for something great.

Roth points to a revelation given by Rev. Tracy Cooke from Miracle Life Tabernacle Ministries, who said earlier this year that God is using 2020 to “deal with the landscape of the church.”

Cooke said the church has broken its vow to God and He will use this year to foster deeper intimacy with his people.

Roth said the coronavirus and other chaos plaguing the world are a sign that God will pour out his Spirit on the church—but it starts with repentance.

“The major mark of this next move of God’s Spirit is repentance,” Roth said. He urges Christians to use this time in quarantine to do two things: repent and pray in tongues “without ceasing.”

“I’m excited about the new beginnings God is giving the church, and it starts with us as individuals living in rapid repentance,” Roth said. “It flat doesn’t matter what’s going on in the world. It’s what’s going on with you. It’s, ‘Are you living in rapid repentance? Are you praying in tongues every moment you have?’ That’s what’s more important because all things work together for good if you are praying in tongues and living your repentant life.”
