

Sparkling Global Revival: 25 Hours of Prayer and Worship

BYLINE: Talia Wise/CBN News

Revival has been sweeping U.S. college campuses since the Asbury Awakening of February 2023. It's been marked by both planned and unplanned events in which thousands of students have given their lives to Christ, resulting in extended impromptu worship and baptisms.

Now there's a plan for a global 25-hour revival event that could be the culmination of two years of awakening. It's being called Gather25 and it's scheduled to hit multiple major cities around the world in March of 2025.

In the last eight months, CBN News has reported on revival breaking out at events hosted by Christian author and speaker Jennie Allen.

Allen is also the visionary behind Gather25, but she has an army of Christ-followers helping to make this a reality with as many language translations as possible, international hosts and more. Sadie Robertson Huff, Christine Caine and David Platt are all getting involved, along with individuals and groups from all over the world.

"We are doing something epic," Allen told CBN Monday. "Every single, individual church, we want them to participate. We're going to go live from every single continent and we are going to tell the stories of the church and what God is doing on earth right now."

The Gather25 team is asking individuals to sign up to participate at and is seeking volunteers to host virtual sites for those who can't make it to the larger events.

Live event tickets go on sale this fall for major gatherings in the U.S., Australia, Singapore and Rwanda.

"Unite Tennessee" will feature Allen alongside Pastor Jonathan Pokluda of Harris Creek Baptist Church in Waco, Texas, and include musical performances by Passion Music.

The preaching duo has seen hundreds of students give their lives to Jesus Christ since last year when nearly 5,000 students packed out Neville Arena at Auburn University to worship and praise Jesus.
