

Teen Claims He Saw Jesus Saving Him in Near-Death Experience

Though Zack Clements went without a medical heartbeat for 20 minutes, his spirit was still conscious.

The normally healthy teen was running around in PE at his Texas high school when he suddenly collapsed, his body going into cardiac arrest.

By the time he made it to the hospital he was unconscious, but his family calls what happened next a miracle.

Watch the video to see.