

The Breaker Anointing

Our God in heaven takes joy in our drawing near to Him, so He can bless us with a supernatural encounter with Him. On this episode of Fire Starter with Dr. Jamie Morgan, learn how to unlock your breakthrough today!

Discussing her book, The Breaker Anointing, author Barbara Yoder explains that “the breaker anointing is about learning how the God within us is our breakthrough.” It is within this relationship that we draw near to God and, therefore, draw near to our breakthrough. The various voices ringing with every opinion on the planet often try to drown out the voice of the Lord. But it’s more important than ever to be in right standing in our relationship with God and listen intently to His voice. God is separating the true from the false.

Yoder agrees, saying, “we’re really in a very interesting time where we’ve got to know what the Word says.”

Our breakthrough can only come from a deeply personal encounter with the Lord. Can we be the very thing standing in the way of our breakthrough? “The gospel is the only thing that can change the heart of man and woman,” Morgan says. “I believe that a lot of Christians are standing at a crossroads right now.”

If you find yourself at a crossroads, searching for a breakthrough but unsure of how to unlock it, listen to this week’s episode for the key. {eoa}
