

The Law of the House Is Being Activated! Are You Ready for the Remodeling?

Dear Preparing Ones:

The Lord wants to bring His glory in a new way! But He first must address the “house” before He allows His glory to come in again – whether that is individually, corporately, or territorially. He is activating the Law of the House and is ready to redo our house so we can get to a new place of knowing and expressing Him. Yesterday’s service was such an incredible time of hearing how the Lord wants to remodel us for His glory to manifest in this Passover season. The Lord is changing our expectation of His visitation! As you watch this replay, allow Him to remove how you see yourself and give Him liberty to remodel and make room for His glory!

Key Prophecies for Preparing Your House!

What an incredible morning of revelation! The Spirit of God spoke to us time and time again through tongues, prophecy, dream interpretation, and more! Here is a portion of what the Lord would have us meditate on and declare as we prepare for Passover 5786!

“Your identity is about to be changed. You’re moving from a worm to a new, sharp, threshing instrument with teeth. Do not fear the changes. I will help you get through all that is necessary for you to become what I am destining you to become. I’m removing the smoke screens, and I’m breaking the mirrors that have fractured your eyesight. I am moving in a new way and causing the scales to blow away, the spirit of deception to fall away, and I am revealing what is in front of you. I am showing up in a new way – open your eyes! I'm bringing you out of that carnival that you've been in, and the house of mirrors where you haven't known which way to go and where to turn because things looked like they would open, but they didn't open up. I am ready to break the mirrors that have reflected wrongly in your life, and show you a light you have not seen, and the path you need now. You are now coming out of the house mirrors. I am going to remove how you see yourself.

"I am increasing your boundaries, so stop thinking of yourself as what you see in the mirror. You've got to get up into the higher place, and when you are up with Me and ask Me, 'What do You see?', you will see yourself in a whole new perspective. You will see the three-dimensional aspect of your being and the borders and boundaries you can extend into. You will see correctly. It will not be backwards. It will not be the reverse of the reality in your life.

"What I have done, I have done intentionally, I have done purposefully, and it is prosperous. But I have to have a people who are content with what I do in their lives. What I have already established that you have not seen, I have come so that you would begin to see, because I am the revealer of all things. You're chasing and chasing and chasing, but I am the one who reveals. I am the one who reveals. The world would have you chasing who you ought to be, but I have come to reveal who you are.

"I am changing your expectations of My visitation. Visitation is on its way, but this will be the hour that I will put My finger on the walls that have withstood Me. When I put My finger on them, they will disintegrate, and the armies behind them will be blown back. This is the time of Me opening up space for Me to have the right to move in new ways. This is My time of removing walls, and the good you have done in the past, I will remember. You do not have to store it for all to see what you have accomplished; for that good, I will remember. And then, if you will allow Me to store that, I will cause that room to give you more room. If you will quit looking at what you have accomplished, you will accomplish more.

“There are many storms that are swirling around you out there. There are storms that are making you want to uproot and run, but this is not a time for you to misunderstand what I am doing. I am sending someone to you to let you know how things are going to work out in your life. I am sending someone to you unexpectedly who will speak to you and let you know how I really see the situation you’re in. In all the storms ahead – for this nation will go into some great storms – I will protect and shield those who are celebrating in My house and are willing to open My house up for celebration. I will cause many to seek those houses for refuge. This is a time for you to prepare in the storm but celebrate in the house! Prepare and see the storm, but celebrate in the house. And if you will celebrate in the house, the storm will pass you by!

“As you seek My kingdom first, there will be a movement in this land back to the biblical feasts. You have pioneered the biblical feasts in a way, but it is time to ramp up the biblical feasts’ perspective in this land again. As you celebrate the feasts, it will be as a shield, as a covering, for people who need to come in. From this place, a new understanding and a new love for the feasts will come to this land. It will be the saving grace of this nation – the biblical feasts being celebrated. Don’t stop celebrating My feasts! War with My feast times, for it will be the saving grace for this nation! Do not stop celebrating. Do not stop celebrating the feasts this hour! Do not fear being misunderstood. You are becoming a refuge for people to come in. Stand resolute in your understanding of the feasts. There is a ramping up of revelatory feast-time in this nation, and it will change this nation if you choose. By you worshiping, celebrating, and feasting in My time, I will cause massive storms to pass on by this house I call your nation.” (Chuck Pierce, Michelle Hadley, Linda Heidler, Robyn Vincent, Keivy Phillips)
