

Thousands Flood Times Square for Massive Easter Worship Service

Revival has come to America.

In a powerful Easter service in Times Square, Pastor Mike Signorelli and V1 Church gathered as thousands worshipped the risen King.

“It’s not going to be Mike Signorelli that does it. But Jesus Christ of Nazareth is going to touch your whole body, and He’s going to heal you even while I’m preaching,” Signorelli said.

As thousands lifted their voices in the heart of Times Square, it was more than just a gathering—it was a bold declaration that faith is still alive in the public square. In a place known for noise, distraction and cultural influence, the name of Jesus was exalted without compromise.

Moments like this serve as a reminder that even in the most unlikely places, God is moving—and He is not finished with America.
