

Unstoppable Revival: Turning Point USA Faith Network Doubles in Record Time

We are truly at a turning point.

In a report by Fox News, Turning Point USA Faith has doubled the size of its church network in just the last month since the assassination of TPUSA co-founder, Charlie Kirk.

Spokesman Andrew Kolvet told Fox that the church network of Turning Point USA has reached 8,000, which is “one of the largest growth spikes in the organization’s history.”

“So, what we’re doing in the faith space has more than a testament to the legacy that Charlie Kirk has left,” Kolvet said. “There’s so many anecdotes and so many people that have come to us, sent us see it in the social media comments saying, ‘Charlie re-inspired my faith. I’m going back to church. I’m praying for my husband. Our marriage has been saved...'”

What the enemy meant for evil, God is clearly turning for good. In the wake of unimaginable tragedy, a fresh wind of revival has swept through the nation, breathing new life into the vision Charlie Kirk carried to see faith restored in America. Charlie's life and death are proof that when one voice is silenced for the gospel, God raises a thousand more. From college campuses to pulpits, people are awakening with renewed conviction, returning to prayer and standing boldly for truth.
