

Use These Tools to Unlock Wisdom in the Prophetic

Francina Norman has been a leader in the prophetic movement for over 35 years. Her passion for releasing the kingdom through the prophetic has been a staple in her ministry. But it's her heart to help others cultivate a better understanding of their prophetic call that has led her to share her podcast, Prophetic Protocol with Francina Norman, on the Charisma Podcast Network.

With every episode, she aims to inspire listeners to embrace their prophetic gifting and to learn the protocol and order by which it should be used. "It's not just about the gifting," she states in one of her episodes. "It's also about the wisdom of knowing when and how to release the prophetic gift."

She understands the power of the prophetic word, but she also believes that with the gift comes much responsibility. Being true to the source of revelation knowledge is the most important thing. "We are ambassadors for God. Whatever your calling is ... especially in the prophetic, we must understand that our source comes from God," Norman said. "Jesus was the perfect example when He said, 'I only say what My Father wants Me to say, and I only do what My Father wants me to do.' He was acknowledging that He got all of his information from God."

Through her podcast, you will also learn about the importance of always ministering from the greatest expression of God—love. Anytime the prophetic is administered apart from love, it is being released from the wrong place. She believes with all her heart that prophesying without that in mind is a dangerous practice. "When you do everything in love—when you have the foundation of love—even when you are prophesying, you're not self-seeking. You're not trying to get a door open on your own,” Norman said in an episode on the subject. “We serve a loving God. God is love.”

With her vast experience of ministering around the world, Francina has become one of the most trusted prophetic voices around. It’s her wisdom about the prophetic order—that she’s had to learn over time—that gives her message credence and is the catalyst of passion behind her instruction. So, whether you are mature in your prophetic call, or just now realizing you have one, Prophetic Protocol with Francina Norman is sure to be a podcast you won’t want to miss. {eoa}
