

WATCH: Revival Breaks Out at a McDonalds?!

God really can move anywhere.

A group of young evangelists led by Christian social media influencer Gabriel Storm recently turned an ordinary McDonald's into a place of extraordinary encounter. Driven by the belief that revival isn't limited to churches, they stepped into the fast-food restaurant with a simple mission: worship, pray and share the Gospel.