

When God Healed a Lazy Left Eye

The power to heal was present! Nancy came and received healing for her lazy left eye.

From the age of 7 through adulthood, she had what is medically referred to as amblyopia, otherwise known as an eye that wanders due to abnormal development. Nancy had eye surgery to correct this, but it was not effective. Over the years, she had visited many churches and conferences to receive prayer for healing but had not yet received her healing.

She came across the healing video of Patrick, who was healed of peripheral blindness at one of my miracle services, and began watching my services online.

In her spirit, she knew the Lord led her here, and she would receive her healing if she came to my service.

Nancy contacted me, explained her situation and planned to attend House of Glory's miracle service on Saturday night.

When she came up for prayer and told me her name, I laid hands on her and the glory of God moved upon her. She began to shake, and she fell over under the power of God.

What Nancy did not know was I had been praying for her healing ever since she contacted me. I knew she would get up from under the power of God healed—and she did!

She got up and, to the glory of God, was completely and instantly healed.

Just as blind Bartimaeus in Mark 10 was desperate to receive healing for his sight and stood in faith to be healed, Nancy had faith to be healed and stood for years until that day when she was healed.

She saw the power of God moving and knew if God did it for one, He would do it for her.

He did!

Nancy was healed that day!

Mark 10:52 records Jesus' words to Bartimaeus: "Go your way; your faith has made you well."

When the power of God invades the power of darkness, miracles happen.
