

Who's Your Elijah?

I believe every prophetic person needs an Elijah in their life—that spiritual father or mother, that mentor who can help them learn the virtues of humility, servitude and pursuit of the anointing.

Who's your Elijah? It's important to discern whom the Lord may be sending in your path to help you release your prophetic voice. In this video teaching, I share with you a scriptural account of the relationship between Elijah and Elisha and the dynamics between them that led to a double-portion anointing for the young prophetic voice.
