

Why God Wants You to Be a Weapon of Heaven Everywhere You Go

International prophet Emma Stark shares powerful revelation on a recent episode of Live Your Best Life With Liz Wright on the Charisma Podcast Network. It is her heart's cry for the church to mirror what we see in Scripture, that we would live "biblically normal" lives and radiate the power and authority of God.

Stark hears God saying that we're coming into a post-Pentecostal, post-charismatic time, where those moves will seem like old wine to us. The new day is here and it is marked by holy power. Stark heard the Lord say, "I will disintegrate all that is ego within you by My holy power, that it is no longer you who is seen."

Jesus is calling us to shift how we think about church, how we think about Scripture and how we think about our role. Church is a lifestyle, not a location; and it's a movement, not a destination. We can easily have a culture of switching on and off around events, but we are called to a lifestyle of increasing His government on the earth. We are given all power and authority in Christ to set things straight and expand His kingdom!

It's time to step into the joy of not being our own and fully belonging to Christ. Salvation is not freedom to be independent but to be like Jesus. You have been completely fused with Christ, and when your awareness of this reality floods your consciousness, you become a weapon of heaven wherever you turn up!

Rather than sovereignly moving, God wants to move in us and through us in partnership and friendship to bring His kingdom here on earth. Gone are the days where we cry out for Him to come, He is crying out to co-labor with us to change the world.

Reorient your heart today, for Christ is within you! Listen to this episode of Live Your Best Life with Liz Wright titled Be the Answer/With Emma Stark. {eoa}
