

'23 Minutes in Hell' Author Answers Most-Asked Questions About Hell

In 1998, I spent 23 minutes in hell. I was a Christian for 28 years before God gave me this terrifying vision. Although I had read the Bible for many years, I hadn't felt the urgency to study hell in-depth until after my experience.

In the many years since my 23 Minutes In Hell experience, I have spoken to thousands of people across the world. I also receive emails and letters daily with the many questions people have about God, the afterlife and hell.

My wife, Annette, and I share the most common questions I'm asked, along with the biblical answers in this new video.
