

3 Things You Should Prepare for This Year

Historian William Forstchen says 2018 must be a year in which we consider the ramifications of the news cycle, which includes preparing for the worst.

“We as a America cannot tolerate a psychotic regime possessing nuclear weapons with ICBM capabilities that could destroy the United States in one second,” Forstchen tells Jim Bakker.

He has a few other specifics in mind as well. Check it out.