

44 Days Before Easter: The Contrast of 2 Kings

When it came to worldly wealth, King Herod had it all. Money, power, possessions—there was nothing he lacked or wanted. He lacked nothing except, perhaps, inner peace.

On the other hand, as the Son of God, Jesus didn't gather many worldly possessions or money but was a man on Earth of peace and love and was filled with inner contentment. Herod had no regard for human life, and Jesus came to save the world.

In this video devotional, Christian author and Pastor Jamie Buckingham takes a look at the lives of both King Jesus and King Herod and contrasts the two.{eoa}
