

5 Ways Christians Can Protect Themselves From World's Seductive Lies About Sex

Every young person should take 10 minutes to watch this challenging video. Parents, pastors, youth leaders, grandparents and educators need to share this video presentation to protect those they love from not being part of the 110 million Americans now infected with sexually transmitted diseases.

The blockbuster film Hustlers lures girls into believing a lifestyle of adult entertainment, drugs and seducing guys is an attractive alternative and can make you rich.

Young people are captivated by the Bachelor in Paradise show featuring fornication, alcohol and even a lesbian couple.

K-12 curriculum propagandizes and promotes the LGBTQ agenda, "gender neutrality," casual sex and even abortion.

"Must-see" TV needs to make room for must-see videos and podcasts that protect our young people from destruction and premature death.
