

A Moment of Desperation Led Samuel Rodriguez to Experience God's Miracle-Working Power

When COVID hit his family, leaving his daughter admitted to the ICU and separated from all loved ones, bestselling author and pastor Samuel Rodriguez broke down.

"I just cried out to God and said, 'I have no idea what to do next,'" he says in a Daystar interview.

But in what Rodriguez says was a 2 Chronicles 20:12 moment, the Lord revealed to him, "Vulnerability in the presence of God is what leads to victory via the power of God."

Filled to overflowing with the presence of the Holy Spirit, Rodriguez called on God to send His angels to his daughter's ICU room.

"As long as you don't lose your ability to cry out to God, there's still a chance. As a matter of fact, breakthrough is right around the corner," he learned.

In that moment of desperation, God showed up in miraculous ways. Watch the full interview here to find out what happened next.

Read articles like this one and other Spirit-led content in our new platform, CHARISMA PLUS.