

A War on Traditional Values

With gay marriage legislation being passed in Iowa and  Vermont, some Christians are saying that there is an all out war on traditional values. I thought Samuel Rodriguez (pictured), president of the National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference, spoke eloquently on this subject. You can read his comments here and then come back to our Web site and tell me what you think by leaving a comment.