

A Word of Encouragement for the Discouraged

In a recent episode of Prophetic Spiritual Warfare with Kathy DeGraw on the Charisma Podcast Network, host Kathy DeGraw encourages those who feel under attack, discouraged and unable to feel the Lord's presence.

DeGraw reminds us that God has never left us nor will He ever.

When things don't go according to plan, she asks us, "Why do you blame God for everything? Why is that your first reaction?" Could it be that our faithlessness is what is causing us to feel apart from God?

This deliverance minister has learned that we have a faithful God even when we are faithless. Through the trials in her life, DeGraw has come to fully know that "God doesn't know how to fail."

Why do we blame God when bad things happen to us? And more importantly, how can our prayers change the way we view God? Discover this and more by listening to the full episode with Kathy DeGraw here. {eo2}
