

Activating Introverts in Evangelism

Many believers mistakenly think that evangelism is only for charismatic, extroverted personality types. If they aren't called to be evangelists, they shrink back from sharing the gospel with the lost entirely.

The scriptural reality is that fivefold ministers, and in this case evangelists, are supposed to equip the saints to do the work of the ministry. Every single one of us is called to share the gospel of Jesus with those around us.

Thankfully, God has uniquely tailored us all to reach people from different walks of life and with various personality types, so you can do it too, regardless of whether or not you are naturally outgoing.
