

Are We Blocking or Accelerating Bible Prophecy?

With self-interest, pride, liars, hurricanes, earthquakes and more making headlines, many people believe we are living in the end of days.

But when Americans elected President Donald Trump, some eschatologists believe the country was granted a reprieve from the wrath of God.

So are we barreling toward Judgment Day or do we have some time? John Shorey explains.