

Audrey Assad Shares Prophetic Picture of Martyrdom at IHOPKC

During a performance at the International House of Prayer, worship leader Audrey Assad shared a picture she received of the saints being martyred for the gospel. She says, "This is a witness to the goodness of God to me: that people every day around this world are giving their lives for this truth." Watch this video to hear both her powerful words and her incredible worship performance.