

Believers Must Fully Grasp This Aspect of God's Identity

The word "Trinity" isn't found in the Bible. Because of that there are many people, even pastors, who don't believe the Trinity exists.

The Bible, however, makes it crystal clear that God is three persons in one.

The person who doesn't believe in the Trinity most likely has a lack of understanding and accuracy regarding other important issues in the Bible.

This all-important aspect of God's identity must be fully grasped by every believer.
