

Bethel's Special Black History Month Presentation Honors God's 'Beautiful Black Bride'

Bethel Church took time to honor Black History Month with a special spoken-word presentation. The show-stopping performance both honored historic black expressions of Christianity and acknowledged racial injustice, while leaving the audience with an important message: God never forsook his "beautiful black Bride." Watch it here.