

Bethel Worship Leader Declares 'Revival's in the Air'

On Monday, amid riots and national unrest, Bethel Music posted a video of worship leader Dante Bowe singing "Revival's in the Air" live.

The song's lyrics—written by Jonathan David, Melissa and Cadence Helser—predict a holy turning point after an era of shame: "I can feel redemption on the wind/ Forgiveness like the tide rolling in/ You breathe the breath of life into our lungs/ Marching on our knees, we march to love/ Revival's in the air/ Catch it if you can/ He's moving on the wind/ The dawn is breaking

"Let hope arise now," Bowe says during the bridge. "Don't you get weary!"

At another point, Bowe declares, "I prophesy love's returning."

Watch the live performance video here.