

Bill Johnson: Stop Praying for God to Bind the Devil

How many times could you ask your boss to do your job before he'd just fire you? Bill Johnson believes it's the same way with God. We keep praying for God to cast out demons or do mighty works—but Christ has already given us that power and responsibility.