

Chance the Rapper Leads Online Bible Study for 4,000 People

Chance the Rapper, the Grammy-winning rapper who recently announced he was taking a brief sabbatical in order to study the Bible, recently jumped on Instagram Live to read through Galatians with his followers. He introduced the book first, saying, "I thought I knew the Bible and I did not, so I'm reading it now." And his reading drew a sizable audience: by the end of reading chapter 5, Chance mentions that he and 4,000 people have nearly finished the entire book of Galatians. Watch the full video here and let us know what you think in the comments.