

Christian Artist Rejects Politics, Says 'Blood of Jesus' Must Come First

Christian rapper KB told CBN News about his complicated relationship with politics, music and ministry. The Reach Records artist talked in the interview about breaking down the political divisions in our country, even noting that those who espouse racism or white supremacy are still people Jesus died for. His insightful interview can be watched here.