

Christian Author Says We Should Become 'Jedi' to Hear God

Eric Samuel Timm is a Christian author, artist and ministry leader who says Christians need to become "static Jedi" to hear from God. Though many people associate the term "Jedi" with Star Wars, Timm says, "Jedi actually is 'beloved by God.' ... That's a Hebrew boy's name." He says being a static Jedi is about balance, equilibrium and mastery. In this video, Kyle Winkler interviews Timm to find out what he means by all of this.
