

Christian Rapper's Message of Hope Makes It to Secular Radio—and Goes Viral

Lecrae wrote “I’ll Find You,” featuring Tori Kelly, as encouragement at a time when several loved ones were fighting cancer. The song encourages listeners that they are not alone and to find refuge in the love of their friends and God. This simple message of hope has gone viral, resulting Lecrae’s first real crossover hit—the song reached No. 15 on the Billboard Bubbling Under chart and resulted in 26 million views. Watch the official music video here.