

Chuck Pierce Urges Believers to Prepare for What is About to Happen

For those believers who have become weary because they haven't seen the manifestation of what they are praying for in their family, Chuck Pierce says to prepare yourself. Your time is coming.

Pierce says that those who have been praying for prodigals to come back to the Lord will begin to see it happen soon in this new Hebrew year of 5782. It builds upon a word that was given to a friend, Cheryl Sachs, years ago who prophesied that revival would come to America and to the nations when the family altar was restored.

"That starts this year," Pierce told Mike and Cindy Jacobs on a recent videocast. "There is a manifestation that starts this coming year and we're actually starting to see it. In Mathew 16, Jesus told Peter that "I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Well, we've been going through the process of unlocking God's kingdom plan on earth. Now, we're starting to build again for the future.

"I think God has pulled us out of a church understanding to get us to rebuild the church for the future. I call it a storehouse for the future because he shifted us to harvest thinking in a new way. But, this is the time to build the family altar and it is the time to pray. If we start seeking Him about restoring the altar in our lives and the altar in our home, all of a sudden, we are going to see our homes harvesting in a new way. We are going to see the church coming into the harvest in a new way."
