

Churchome Pastor Judah Smith Announces Temporary Closure of Churches in Washington Due to Coronavirus

Churchome Pastor Judah Smith took to YouTube to announce that the church's main campus, Kirkland, in Washington, is closed due to the coronavirus (COVID-19). According to the church's website, other campuses in Seattle are closed as well. He says church at home is going to be part of Churchome's vision for the future. He also took the opportunity to encourage people who are living in fear because of the virus.

"We certainly believe that the Spirit of Jesus is on the inside, and He gives us strength and fortitude in uncertain and mysterious times, times that are full of the unknown," Smith says.
