

Controversial Pastor's 'Burning Service' Aimed to 'Give the Devil a Black Eye'

Controversial Pastor Greg Locke has made good on his pledge to hold a "burning service," with his congregation reportedly coming together Wednesday night to torch Ouija boards, copies of Harry Potter and other items.

Locke, the Global Vision Bible Church pastor in Mt. Juliet, Tennessee, posted a video on his Facebook page last night that started with worship and preaching and ended with a massive fire held at the church.

"The devil doesn't win," Locke proclaimed at the start of the video.

He went on to say that the church wouldn't tolerate witchcraft and the occult, and then later urged people to join him outside the tent for the burning service.

"Let's go give the devil a black eye!" Locke said.

Footage shared on Facebook shows people throwing items into the giant inferno. Watch that portion of the video at the 1:02-mark:
