

{ Day 78 }

Because of the fragrance of your good ointments, Your name is ointment poured forth. —Song of Solomon 1:3, NKJV

A fresh abandonment, a holy recklessness for Jesus, is awakening in the spirits of God's people today. Before Jesus returns, God will raise up a church full of people who are hungering for God-centered Christianity and who refuse to return to man-centered Christianity. The denominational label will not matter. If the Son of God is being ministered in power, and His personal beauty is unveiled, people will flock to Him. Why do we want Him? We have discovered that the love and affection of God are better than anything the world has to offer, and we're beginning to see a little bit of the majesty and matchless beauty of the love of Christ Jesus.

{ PRAYER STARTER }

Father, I sense the awakening of Your spirit within my heart anew. I want to live outside the box of man-centered Christianity. I want to arise out of my complacency and apathy to fulfill Your purposes in my life.

The Spirit of God is calling us forth, taking the truths of time and eternity
and using them to awaken us out of complacency.
