

Defeat the Devil's Disappointment, Bitterness With This Prayer

Ryan LeStrange says it is time for the body of Christ to finish 2020 strong—and that means reckoning with those prophetic words for 2019 that have not yet been fulfilled. He says to finish strong with a “fourth quarter press” and not to let disappointment at what has not yet been fulfilled turn into despair.

“The devil uses disappointment to get people to quit,” LeStrange says. “He uses disappointment to get a root of bitterness. And sometimes as we’re exiting one season and entering the next season, we’ve got to be intentional to say ‘I’m going to selah. I’m going to pause here. I’m going to meditate on these things. And I’m going to make a conscious decision to bring this disappointment before the Lord and say, “Lord, I give this totally to you. I’m not carrying this into my next year.”’”
