

Do You Know the 3 Fundamentals to Finding Your Life Partner?

The most important life decision you make after salvation is selection of your marriage partner. You have to avoid pop-culture practices and pursue essentials God gives you for success.

In any sport, you must understand the fundamentals in order to excel. Football icon Vince Lombardi, after whom the Super Bowl trophy is named, began every season by holding up a football and telling the assembled players, "This is a football." He made no apologies for rehearsing the basics.

Watch this inspiring, brief video where respected Christian leader Larry Tomczak presents you with the three fundamentals for finding God's marriage partner for your life.

Be ready to be challenged as you upgrade and experience the breakthrough you've prayed for in this most important area of your life, no matter what your age.
