

Do You Know Your Place in the Kingdom of Heaven?

It is time for the children of the kingdom to take their place as sons and daughters of God.

“The kingdom of heaven suffers violence” (Matt. 11:12 b, NKJV). What does this mean? It means that the kingdom of God, the things of Christ, the gospel all suffer violence. More than ever before, the enemy would see to it that he silence you. But the Scriptures say that “the violent take it by force” (Matt. 11:12c).

You are not of this world. You are no longer under the elementary principles of this world. You are a child of God. A kingdom, an authority has been given to us that is part of our inheritance as sons and daughters. It's time for us to take our place.

However, as long as you are ignorant of what is rightfully yours, the enemy will seek to use you as a pawn, a puppet, but you are not that. You must take what is rightfully yours. You have kingdom authority. You have kingdom reign. We were meant to reign and rule with Christ. That will be fully realized in the coming kingdom, in the millennial reign, but there is even a reality of that now.

Second Corinthians 3:18 says, "But we all, seeing the glory of the Lord with unveiled faces, as in a mirror, are being transformed into the same image from glory to glory by the Spirit of the Lord." It is for His glory that we proclaim His name. Chris and his wife, Zuly, reside in the Fort Smith area with their three children.
