

Donald Trump's 'Glory Road' to the White House

I am in the midst of my media tour, and it's exciting to talk about my new book, God and Donald Trump. In the next few days, I will write about some of the media outlets I have visited and will let you know when those programs will air, in case you want to watch. You can also view some of them online.

Last week, I traveled to Jacksonville, Florida, where Dr. Candice Smithyman interviewed me for her Glory Road program on the Word Network. In addition to the Word Network, the show will air on DirecTV, Apple TV, Verizon, Roku and other venues at 3:30 p.m. ET tomorrow, Nov. 2.

She has a pleasant interviewing style, and our discussion about God and Donald Trump proved very engaging.

Dr. Smithyman and her husband, Dr. Adam Smithyman, pastor a growing congregation called Freedom Destiny Church on the south side of Jacksonville. Although her television program is relatively new, it has enjoyed some success, and she has compiled a steady list of interesting interviews.

I encourage you to watch the program and also to buy a copy of God and Donald Trump on Amazon. It will be available in bookstores in about a week, but Amazon is shipping it now. Tomorrow, I will write about my appearance on The Jim Bakker Show. Four different shows were actually taped, and they will begin airing this week.

On Tuesday, I had the pleasure of being interviewed by Dr. James Dobson on his radio program, Family Talk. I'll write more about that later.

Thank you to everyone who has shared my post and who has preordered the book. Let me know what you think by commenting below.

I want to encourage you to download a sample chapter by clicking here. See our exciting video trailer about the book. I hope it makes you want to purchase it. For more information, please visit . {eoa}