

When You Don't Feel Close to God

God is not as far away as we might think. In fact, He will never leave us alone to weather the storms of life. But when we have unconfessed sin in our lives or fail to spend time with Him, He seems miles apart from us. And like a small voice in a crowded room, we can hardly hear Him speak. No matter the circumstances, don't let the enemy make you believe God is some distant god. He's not. Go ahead and reach out to the Father in prayer. He may appear quiet at times but rest assured, the Holy Spirit will bear witness of His presence.
