

Dr. Cindy Trimm: How to Decree and Declare Wealth and Financial Breakthrough Over Your Life

In a video clip posted Tuesday, Dr. Cindy Trimm prays for 17 minutes for “financial breakthrough” and economic advancement over people gathered at the End Your Year Strong 2018 event.

In the video, she prays, “I decree and declare that great wealth is flowing to us right now. Father, You said that You give us power to get wealth. I decree and declare that we are given to get, and wealth and riches are in our house right now. I decree and declare, Father, that You have given us resources. You have given us a personal brand.”
