

Dry Bones: Micah Bournes Recites the Gospel in Spoken Word

From the pulpit. Friend to friend. Through an act of giving.

There are many ways to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. And through this nearly 4-minute video, Micah Bournes, a Christian poet, musician and speaker shares a passionate gospel message through poetry.

“My sole motivation for pointing out the mud on anyone’s face is so they can be clean,” he says in his monologue within the video.

In partnership with World Relief and The Justice Conference, the Long Beach, California, native has shared his gifts worldwide. Listen now.
