

During Torture, This Believer Cried Out to God—And God Replied With a Life-Changing Message

Sudanese Christians face intense persecution for their faith. One man told the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association about a time when he was tortured for his faith. He wanted to hate his captors. Then God changed his heart.