

Extreme Makeover: Cleveland

Not long ago boarded-up businesses filled Cleveland's downtown Slavic Village, which led the nation in foreclosures and became a national symbol of the recession. Now a church is taking back the area.