

Family Christmas Film Returns to Theaters for Special Screening

Family-friendly musical Buttons chronicles the heartwarming story of two orphans who discover new purpose and meaning in their lives when they meet unexpected strangers.

Though this holiday film originally screened in 2019, it is returning to the big screen for a one-night special on Dec. 17.

The star-studded cast features the talents of Dick Van Dyke, Angela Lansbury and Roma Downey, with Kate Winslet and Robert Redford narrating.

Churches, schools and other organizations who want to screen the film for their communities have the opportunity to partner with Faith Content Network. Find more information here.

The event will also include a Christmas special from Paul Greene (Dr. Carson Shepherd, When Calls the Heart) whose musicality has been enjoyed both onscreen and at Carnegie Hall.

Sign up for tickets at and watch the trailer to get in the holiday spirit.