

Feast on His Goodness

(PART 1)

Have you considered how much God loves you? God is love, and He wants only what is good and what is best for you. Regardless of how things have gone (or haven't gone) for you, God desires to manifest His goodness in your life and do exceedingly, abundantly above all that you ask.

READ: 1 John 4:8-9; 3 John 2; Phil. 4:19; Eph. 3:20; Luke 12:32; James 1:17.

HEART ISSUE: God—who is love—promises to supply all of your needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Is your focus this week on what the enemy has done, or on what God will do?

PRAYER FOCUS: Father, please let me see that You are truly a good God! Let my life be emptied of all fear, doubt and worry, and, instead, be filled afresh this week with Your goodness. Amen.

(PART 2)

God assures you in His Word that you are to trust in Him beyond your own understanding. No matter what you are walking through, God promises that you can experience daily the blessings of His goodness.

READ:

Ps. 5:11-12; Ps. 9:10; Ps. 31:19; Ps. 146:5-6; Deut. 28:11-13; Ps. 23:1,4-6.

HEART ISSUE: God wants you to trust in Him completely for everything in your life. Have you taken the time this week to affirm your trust in Him as a good God who wants to give you His goodness and blessings?

PRAYER FOCUS: Father, thank You for being such a good and faithful God, who promises that I can put all my trust in You daily. Thank You, Lord, that as I walk through this day, Your goodness and mercy follow me, blessing me every step of the way. Amen.

Read a companion article.